Transcriber's Office

April 11, 2000 LB 289, 480A, 480, 652, 652A, 717, 717A, 922
922A, 1092A, 1092, 1107

we have a very bipartisan one out there. Thank you,
Mr. Speaker. With that, you can withdraw that A bill.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: It's withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next motion I have, Senator Cudaback would move that LB 289 become law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Mr. Speaker and members, I guess this won't take long. I think the writing is on the wall for...for A bills. I think the Governor did get some back advice for this bill. This was the zoning bill, as we know it, and I just think that it would have been beneficial to some people in the area, as well as many, many people in the urban areas, rural, whatever. But I shall return on this bill and try it again next year. I guess the...one thing about the Governor, he does keep his promise. He said he would take care of me and I guess he did, so...(laughter) so I got that to be thankful for. No. On a serious note, I just think there was some bad advice around and I'll be back and I'll convince him next year and I will survive this little niche in life. As somebody once says, I shall return, I will return, so thank you for listening. I guess that's a withdrawal, whatever you take it as.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: It will be withdrawn. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, I do have some items. I have communications from the Clerk to the Secretary of State regarding LB 1107, LB 652, LB 652A, LB 922, LB 922A, LB 717, LB 717A, LB 1092, and LB 1092A. In addition to that Mr. President, I have a certificate for the override, as it relates to LB 480, for your signature, and a communication from the Clerk with respect to LB 480A, Mr. President. That's all that I have. (Legislative Journal pages 1738-1742.)

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. I certify that LB 480, having been returned by the Governor with his objections thereto, and after reconsideration having passed the Legislature by the constitutional majority, it does now become law this eleventh day of April, year 2000. I propose to sign and do hereby sign that certificate. An additional item?
